Blogger and Freelance Writer

Everyone has a story.

I specialize in writing the stories of ordinary people who have found their talent or passion and who are doing extraordinary things as a result.

If you have a story to tell, I'll help you get it out there with words that your tribe is excited to read.

Just read your article. Fantastic!!! Thanks so much for writing these articles. They are awesome and have certainly helped spread the word (re The Revenant race.)
Scott Worthington, Race Director

I just wanted to let you know how impressed I was by your writing...it was a really cool read. I think that even if the story wasn't about us I'd still really enjoy it. There's a nice arc to the narrative and you seem to pace it perfectly.
Stephen Counsell, The Cusp
